

2026 New Neighbor Packet

To Our New Neighbor(s):

Welcome to Matamoras! We are so happy to have you join our tight-knit community. My name is Cory Homer, and I am honored to serve as Mayor of Matamoras. I have lived in the borough most of my life. I grew up on Avenue L and, as an adult, have settled down here with my wife to raise our family. We know you will find Matamoras to be a great place to live, work and play. We have so many wonderful things to offer here in the Tri-State area, including quality recreational activities for kids, great restaurants within walking distance, and, of course, the Delaware River, which offers summers filled with fishing, rafting, and other outdoor activities. Beyond our immediate area, we are just a few hours' drive to the beaches of New Jersey, ski slopes of New York, and the museums and cultural centers of New York City and Philadelphia!

We'd like to offer you this new neighbor packet as a way to offer you a little insight into our beautiful area and to help you navigate some of the things that new folks might have questions about. However, if you ever have other questions or need additional insight, please feel free to stop by Borough Hall to check in with our knowledgeable staff or contact me directly at c.homer@matamorasborough.com.

Welcome to our little borough and I hope you find as much enjoyment living as I do.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Cory Homer', written in a cursive style.

Cory Homer, PhD
Matamoras Mayor

History Of Matamoras

Matamoras was originally part of Westfall Township. Its name is derived from the Mexican city of Matamoros, which was the first to be occupied by U.S. troops during the Mexican–American War. It was incorporated as a borough on January 18, 1905.

Merrill-Ronne Airport (now Airport Park)

On May 31, 1930, the Merrill-Ronne Airport was opened on the eastern side of Matamoras. The Airport was named and dedicated to aviators Mazel M. Merrill and Edwin Ronne, who fatally crashed in the woods near Milford, Pennsylvania. The airport consisted of two large runways and a smaller runway at the north end of the airport. The airport was used to train fighter pilots during WWII. The airport closed sometime between 1970 and 1980. After the airport was closed, the land was repurposed and it became what we know today as Airport park.

Geography

Matamoras is located at 41°22'N 74°42'W (41.3678, -74.7018). It is the easternmost point in Pennsylvania. Across the Delaware River are Port Jervis, New York and Montague, New Jersey. At the nearby confluence of the Delaware and Neversink Rivers is the Tri-States Monument, marking the eastern end of the boundary between New York and Pennsylvania.

The borough has a total area of 0.8 sq miles, of which 0.7 square miles is land and 0.1 square miles is water. The population is approximately 2,400 residents.

Veterans Memorial Park

- Veterans Memorial Park and Education Center was created after a visit from the "Moving Wall." The park was established to celebrate the memory of the many veterans who courageously served our country, and also to educate citizens to the horrors of war. It is a work in progress with monuments being finished for World War II, the Revolutionary War, The Cold War, Korea, Vietnam, 9/11 memorial and more. The World War I monument is in the planning stage.

- Each monument is being equipped with QR codes which will have the history of that encounter. The park will eventually have monuments to all the major conflicts as well as the smaller, but no less significant, actions. It is located in the Borough of Matamoras, PA, but it is being constructed by the Veterans Memorial Park and Education Center Society. It is an area to learn, reflect, observe and pay tribute to the sacrifices countless veterans and their families have endured.
